ALSO ON AGENDA

PAPERLESS MEETINGS: To enhance digitalisation for smooth working of the House, MC has proposed to switch to paperless meetings. For this, all documents will be presented online using tablets, thereby saving paper, time and effort required for physical circulation of printed agendas. MC has proposed to buy 60 tablets and other equipment at a cost of ₹59.75 lakh

SYNTHETIC TRACKS IN GARDENS: The civic body is also proposing to replace cinder tracks with synthetic tracks at Rose Garden, Sector 16, Floral Garden, Sector 15, and parks near Christ the Cathedral Church and tubewell in Sector 19. The ₹2.96-crore project will take six months to complete.
